3 'Why are you working so hard?' asked Grasshopper.

4 'I'm collecting food for the winter,' said Ant.

5 Grasshopper laughed, 'I'm not working. The day is too beautiful!'

6 Ant continued collecting food.

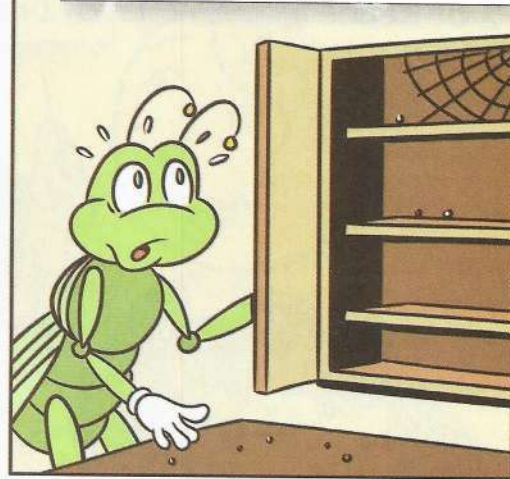

7 Then winter arrived.

8 Ant had plenty of food.

9 But Grasshopper had nothing. He was very hungry.

10 Grasshopper went to see Ant. 'Please can I have some food?' he asked.

11 'Why didn't you collect food in the summer?' asked Ant.

12 'I was too busy relaxing. I'm sorry,' said Grasshopper.

13 That winter, Ant shared his food with Grasshopper.

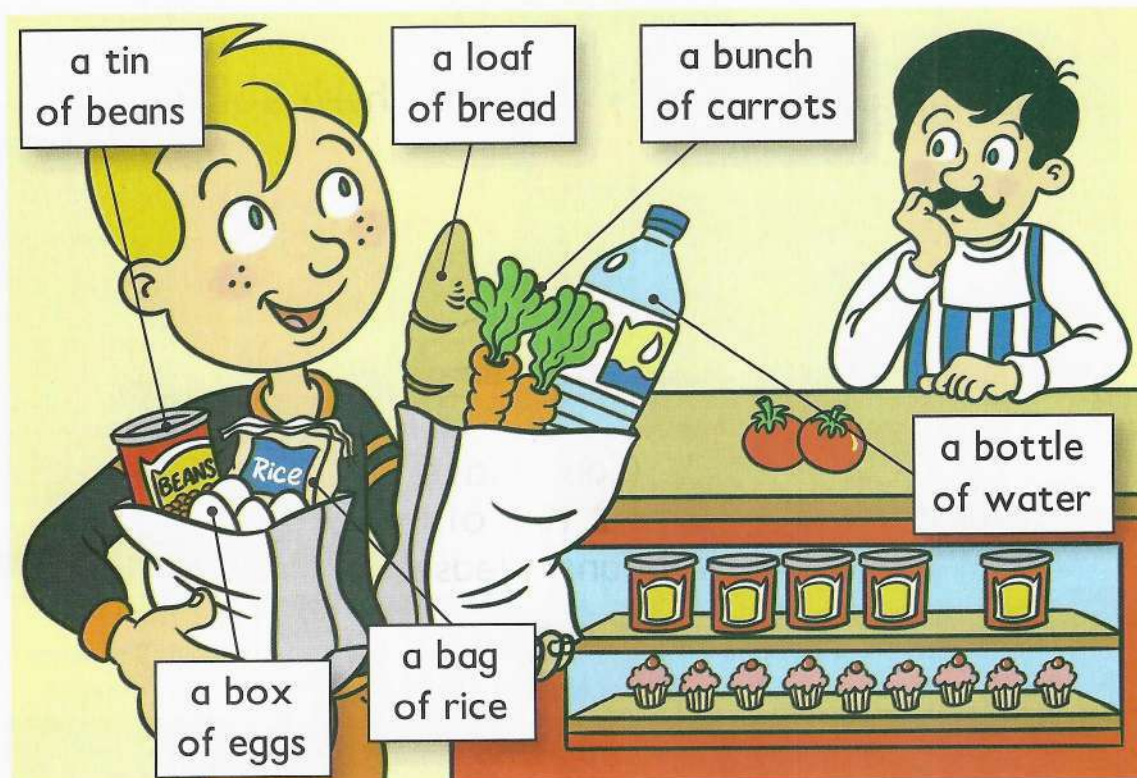

14 When summer came, they both worked hard collecting food for the winter.

The greedy king

Listen, look and read.

1 This is the story of a king.

2 He has a big house and a beautiful garden, but he's only thinking about his gold.

4 a bird gets trapped in the garden.

5 The king helps the bird and sets it free.

3 One day, while he's looking at his gold,

7 The king wishes that everything he touches turns to gold.

6 The bird gives the king a wish.

8 The king touches a sofa, and it turns to gold.

9 He touches a table, and it turns to gold.

10 He touches his food, and it turns to gold.

11 Then he touches his daughter, and she turns to gold, too.

12 Now the king is sad, tired, hungry and lonely.

13 He doesn't want his wish anymore.

14 The bird is watching while the king is crying

15 and takes away his wish.

16 The king lives happily and wisely for ever after.
